

Colleges team hold Wanderers

Wycombe Wanderers 0,
English College Universities XI 0

A strong Universities team held Wycombe Wanderers to a goal-less draw at Loakes Park on Tuesday evening. Wanderers were well on top and should have had at least four goals to show for their efforts.

However, the Universities team defended stubbornly and covered intelligently. All their players have won representative honours at some level and the Universities side must have been well satisfied with the result.